The moral of any story usually leaves the most significant impression on the listener. The same is true for sermon illustrations. Beginning or ending your sermon with a story can help the point stick with your church. Looking for ideas to get you started? Here are some ideas from some trending sermon topics.

While it may be easy to grab an outline and run with it, it is also suggested that you study the outline before you preach it. You should modify the outline to your style of preaching. You must believe what you are preaching, otherwise there are people who will figure out that you do not know what you are talking about or

"The kingdom of heaven is like a man who sowed good seed
in his field. 25 But while everyone was
sleeping, his enemy
came and sowed
weeds among the
