Our justice system should strive to reduce the number of innocent victims as much as possible. Too many supposedly non-parolable "life" sentences have their sentences reduced or commuted. While it is tragic for innocent men to be wrongfully executed, the reality is that many murders are caused by lenience and unwillingness to use the death penalty.

I'll say! I was involved in politics back in 2016, it took up about half my time, the others half was school life, music, and being a kid, so I had a pretty good life back then. After Trump got elected, I figured, theres no point since the election was over. So my investment in politics dwindled significantly.
